

Are you worried about bullying at St Joseph’s?

If you are, then you will be interested in some events that are coming up soon for Anti-Bullying Week. We work hard to ensure that bullying doesn’t happen—and if it does, we work hard to investigate and stop it. As parents, your help with this is very important, so it is essential that we all understand what bullying IS and what it ISN’T. Please join us for the Parent Awareness session during Anti-Bullying Week, so we can work on bullying together!

What’s happening in school?

Tuesday 15th November:

9.10am—whole school assembly for children and teachers led by Anti-Bullying educator Ann Foxley-Johnson. Included in this session will be the introduction of new PLAYGROUND BUDDIES.

1.15pm—training for dinner ladies and TAs from Ann Foxley-Johnson

2.15—3.15—PARENT SESSION led by Ann Foxley-Johnson—in the SCHOOL HALL—PLEASE JOIN US! Refreshments available

Friday 14th November:

Playground Buddies will be chosen and announced

Wednesday 23rd November:

9am—12: Playground Buddies training session with Ann Foxley-Johnson

Find out about Ann’s work at : www.facebook.com/theantibullyingcompany

We are delighted to be working with Ann, who has worked across our Learning Community